ORIENTATION 1996-1997

Halloween Party

Bud Frogs and their agent on tour

Everybody was Kung-Fu fighting

HEY! Stop looking at my butt

Father forgive me . . .

Lieutenant Worf has joined our crew

Love Bites

Livin' it up with the masked man

Big babies!

Jean Dorman takes us back

Hey baby, don't step on my blue suede shoes

We wouldn't have found him, but he smiled

Uncle Sam makes everybody cry

Gimme a kiss doll

Jest in love

Revenge of the nerds!?!

HOLIDAY DANCE

Profilin!

Hey, what did I tell you?

The lady in red, is completely color coordinated

Double teamed

Aren't they just too happy?

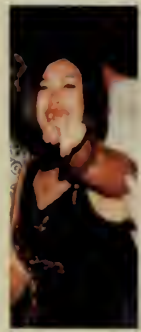

It's all you man!

So that's how you do it!

Excuse me, would you like to dance?

You! Get out here and dance

Shake your thang!

I just don't get it!?!

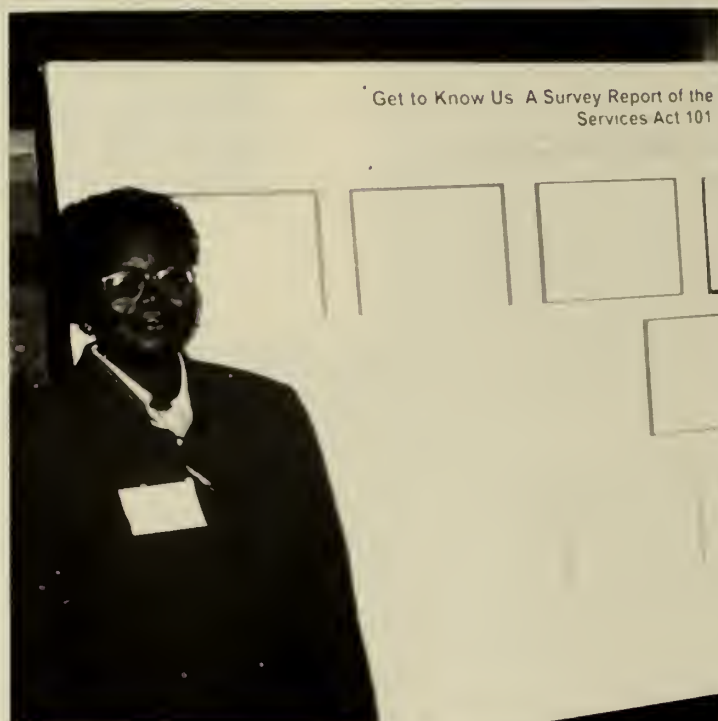

You call this fun?

David Buck, PA-C, graduated from the Hahnemann University Physician Assistant Program in 1987, and received the Abbott Laboratory Award for Outstanding Graduate. He joined the Program faculty in 1989 after working as a PA in cardiology at Hahnemann Hospital. As the course director for the Physical Diagnosis course and Director of Clinical Rotations, David contributed to the education of over 500 students and graduates.

David was recognized by students and faculty as a consummate educator. He was honored with the Trustee's Award for Teaching Excellence in May, 1996, and was selected by the PA class of 1996 as their graduation speaker in August. David was beloved by students and graduates for his wit and compassion and for his dedication to the excellence of their education.
